(Give details of movable and immovable properties including bank accounts)

Life is uncertain and I do not know when the god calls me and I don't know when I leave this beautiful world therefore, during my lifetime I want to make settlement of my all movable and immovable properties so as to avoid any difference or dispute over sharing of my properties among my legal heirs.

Therefore, I am making the present will. So long I am alive I will continue to be owner of all my properties. However, after my death.
